The 5Ws

Grade 2 Comprehension Worksheet

Finding the 5Ws—who, what, when, where and why—can help you understand the main parts of a story.

Read the story and think about the 5Ws:

Millie's Winter Walk

On a chilly winter afternoon, Millie and her dog, Pal, went for a walk in the snowy park. The ground was covered in soft, white snow. The trees looked like they were wearing blankets! Millie had on her warm red scarf, cozy mittens and green boots. She loved hearing the crunch of the snow under her feet. Pal was so happy to be outside. He jumped and ran through the snow, leaving little paw prints everywhere.

Suddenly, Pal saw a small squirrel near a tree. The squirrel had a fluffy tail and was holding an acorn. Pal froze for a second and then ran after it! Snow flew up behind him as he ran. Millie called, "Pal, come back!" but he didn't stop. He chased the squirrel up a small hill. The squirrel was fast and ran up a tall tree.

Millie ran up the hill to find Pal. When she got there, Pal was sitting by the tree, looking up at the branches. The squirrel was sitting high in the tree, staring down at Pal. “You’re such a silly dog, Pal,” Millie said, laughing. She brushed snow off her mittens and patted Pal on the head. His fur was covered in tiny snowflakes, and his tail wagged happily. “Let’s go home,” Millie said.

They turned and walked down the hill. The snow looked pretty in the late afternoon light. Pal stayed close to Millie as they walked along the snowy path. Millie smiled. She was happy to have her playful dog by her side.

Then fill out the story's who, what, when, where and why!
